Gearing Up For 50 Years

Season 2013 was a great lead up to our 50th anniversary year in 2014. While we struggled for player numbers, our rebuilding program especially amongst the higher grades and Colts is well and truly on track.

A few early stumbles especially with Sam Harris departing one week before the season started, were overcome by some magnificent efforts by the coaching staff. The appointment of Haig Sare as club coach has really shown some benefits.

Key Priorities For 2013

Leading into our 50th anniversary year I think it is important to take stock of where we are and where we are going. The last few years have been all about getting us back on a strong footing. Our priorities with regards to this have been:

- Strong playing stocks
- Financial viability
- Connection with the greater rugby community
- Connection with the local community.

As a club we needed to ensure everyone knows what we are about and that we are an important part of what this sport is all about.

As a club have some enormous strengths, not just with our tradition and ethos, but as a vehicle for our community to come together and enjoy the simple things in life. These being part of something great, enjoying time either playing or watching footy with our friends and living the highs and lows of a competitive sport.

Sometimes I feel we take two steps back for everyone we take forward and a lot of frustration felt at board level is more about what happens at the senior levels of Rugby than it does in our own back yard.

A Period Of Uncertainty

Many of you have probably read in the press about potential changes to club rugby, the possible introduction of a national club competition and the expansion of the super rugby squads. In truth we don't have any idea what is going to happen. It seems to me that the ARU doesn't have any idea either.

The old adage "if it ain't broke then don't fix it" doesn't seem to apply in rugby circles. In fact it seems that the attitude is more "let's make change for change sake" and this is a ridiculous theory as it only sends concern through the ranks of the rugby faithful.

No matter what decisions are made at senior level, we at Warringah need to continue with our programs and work for our club and our community. It's getting tougher every year but the rewards are enormous.

Looking To The Future

We have introduced some wonderful programs in 2013, some of which include;

● Junior Development Program

I can't speak highly enough of the great people involved from our junior clubs who took control of this program. The commitment they have shown has been sensational. It was such a joy to see about a 100 or so kids from under 12's through to under 17's training consistently in the off season.

● Touring Parties.

This year the boys carried on the recently reformed touring culture and visited Cuba. This is two countries since 2011 that WRC has been the first Australian rugby team to tour to. The humanitarian work of the tours has also created a great feeling amongst the players and has given the club great respect in the wider community.

● Player Development programs.

The development of our playing roster has been sensational. Any one of you who was at Rat Park to see that close loss to Sydney Uni probably witnessed one of the best club rugby games in modern times. Both clubs gave it their all and the skills on display were absolutely fantastic. Keeping the boys together is a top priority.

In conclusion, we have a great club with great people and a great future. We all need to stay true to the course and work for the betterment of our community.

I would like to thank all the board of WRC for 2013, players, members and especially the volunteers as without these people we would not have a club.

TREASURER'S REPORT 2013 - Duncan Holmes

Operating Within Means

It has been a pleasure to act as the Club's Treasurer for season 2013 and I am happy to present our Financial Reports for the year ended 30 September.

It is dead easy to act as a Treasurer when you have no money, and that is a problem that affects many Premier Rugby Clubs. We have lived within our means this year and reduced old debts, including many Directors' loans.

Improve Revenue Streams

Our financial problems, when one looks at the state of other not-for-profit / community organisations are not so great.

The key of course is improving our income streams and that should be the focus for next year, especially if our long awaited new ground hire agreement is concluded with Council.

A significant aspect of this year's accounts is the writing off of the loan from Sporting Ground Improvement Fund.

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT 2013 - Grant Gallant

Staying In Touch

I have enjoyed another year as Chaplain to the Rats. This season its been good to get to know some of the new players and also keep in touch with old players. This year it has been a privilege to support some players and staff going through tough times.

I like it when players and/or staff seek me out to have a chat. I am at the club to offer anyone a listening ear (in confidence), to help out in times of trouble or stress, to give advice or put you in touch with other people who might be able to help. I am always happy to help anyone exploring the Christian faith or to help them strengthen their own journey with Christ.

Sports Chaplaincy Aust.

This year Sports Chaplaincy Australia (which I am a member) was able to place a chaplain in all the Grade Rugby Clubs. Only four years ago there were only two Clubs with Chaplains (Southern Districts and Warringah) and so it is great that all Clubs now have a chaplain to help out where needed.

If you would like to have a chat or meet up, please give me a call 0407 891 306, or 9999 4321

A New Era Begins

We had a fantastic pre-season in which all of the boys made some large gains, not only physically but mentally, especially after enduring a near 24 hour torture session at the hands of our defence forces! Our preparation was briefly disrupted with the departure of our Head Coach Sam Harris, who accepted a professional coaching role in Japan only weeks out from the start of the season.

However the boys responded in the first competition game with an extremely dominant display over Penrith to kick the season off. The next few weeks would set up the scenario for what seemed to echo throughout the year. This involved regular nail biters. We lost rounds two and three to Norths and competition heavy weights Souths by only a point and then responded with a one point victory over defending premiers Sydney Uni at Uni. This win displayed the true character of our team and optimised the Rats spirit of rising to the adversity of previous weeks.

Rising To Challenges

This spirit carried on to Randwick the week after with another one point victory due to a near miracle field goal by Dave Harvey 48 metres at full time. Unfortunately these close emotional games were starting to take its toll on the players. Both Manly and Parramatta beat us comprehensively whilst after leading by what seemed a winning margin, we allowed West Harbour to claw back into the game, to take us by only the slimmest of points right on full time.

It was at this stage during the season we learnt the hard lesson of having to be on top of our game week in and week out in order to compete with the larger teams. To our credit, we knocked off Gordon with a great come back that showed masses of team maturity in the second half. And we came within whiskers of another upset against rugby heavy weights Sydney Uni with a show stopping game at Rat Park. Although we lost the game, the boys left the field with a well deserved standing ovation.

Finals Glory So Close

After receiving a scrummaging lesson from the much larger Easts and Souths pack, we set the goal to win three out of our last five games to make the finals. We achieved our goal with a victory once again against Randwick at Randwick, in which it seemed to be raining tries. We made up for our earlier season touch up from our old bogey team Parramatta with clinical footy and also nailed another strong positive win against a West Harbour team, led by Wallaby James O'Connor.

With one game to go against minor premiers Eastwood, we thought a four try bonus point (which Mickey Adams secured for us with a 90 metre try on full time) would have secured us in the top 8. Unfortunately the rugby gods were not with us and we lost on "for and against" to Randwick, who we had beaten twice throughout the year.

Solid Future Ahead

2013 offered a plethora for our fans. Our backs were electric and arguably earned the title of most threatening in the competition, whilst our forwards showed an abundance of heart, to never take a backwards step.

Our set piece proved to be a challenge along with our inability to hold teams out once they entered our own 22 metres. By the season's end our boys had adapted to a style of play that was threatening no matter who the opposition was.

Going forward, our team that was once young up-and-comers has now graduated to hardened Grade players who have experienced all that the competition has to offer. At times this is not enjoyable but reaping the benefits that this maturity offers definitely will be evident for the seasons to come.

Thank you to all the players, support staff, club members and supporters for the belief and positivity shown to me in my first year of coaching. It was a season that I learnt a lot and thoroughly enjoyed.

COACH - 1st Grade

Trusting The Game Plan

I am submitting this report as a critical review of the 2013 season with the hope that the players involved in the campaign will reflect on the season and develop to become better players for their experiences this year.

It is widely acknowledged that Reserve grade is a notoriously difficult grade to achieve success in. There are unique challenges for a Reserve grade team which are inherent to the nature, position and make-up of the competition itself. Yet every year one team overcomes these difficulties to become the Premiers.

The challenge for the Coaching group in Reserve grade this year proved to be convincing the playing group to trust the game plan and for the players to have belief in their individual and collective ability!

The Quest For Success

The 2013 Colin Caird Shield quest was both interesting and challenging. Overall it was a season marred by inconsistency between match day performances and inconsistency within match day performances.

A clinical review of each of our match results throughout the season reveals a distinct lack of respect for the bonus point system and more pointedly an apparent lack of respect for the role that defence plays in the overall success of a Rugby season.

Our "for and against" was significantly out of balance and ultimately impacted with our failure to reach the finals by a single point. However, success in a rugby season can be judged on many levels.

There is of course, the competition ladder. Our position here reflected only moderate success. The fact that it came down to the last game to make the finals series was pleasing given our early season performances.

Developing Talent

There is the level of enjoyment and camaraderie that is achieved within the squad inclusive of Coaches and Management. On this note, as a group it would be hard to imagine a nicer group of young men. Eager, respectful and committed (up to a point). While they were competitive as individuals, there was not enough team driven focus for success to carry us through the tougher game day challenges.

There is the advancement throughout the season of an individual player's and squad's rugby education and the increasing mastery in Rugby related skills. It is here that I believe the 2013 season was a great investment in player development moving forward. As the season wore on the players took greater ownership in the game plan and the in particular the skills required to carry it out. This resulted in some excellent Rugby being played later in the season and stands as evidence of the quality of players available for 2014.

Having gone through the growing pains of a new coaching staff with a new tactical approach and the introduction of many players new to Reserve grade and indeed Warringah Rugby, I firmly believe another season together could result in the foundation of a formidable team with an already established rapport and understanding.

As Coach, I was always excited by the potential in the side and on occasion this potential was realised on match day performances. With an already established familiarity between coaching staff and players, the 2014 season could build significantly on the work and results achieved this season.

Teamwork Was Key

From a personal perspective, it is always an honour and privilege to be given a Rugby coaching position. This affords you the opportunity to work with people who enjoy the game. Better than this, the stage you work on with these people requires teamwork, sacrifice, selflessness, expertise and many other virtues that reveal the character of an individual. A season of rugby is a great journey to share.

Thanks to each and every player who took the field. It is my fervent hope that you learned something new or in some way benefitted from the experience.

To my Assistant Coach Andrew Johnson for his commitment, hard work, support, and tactical and strategic contributions to the season. He added to the personality of the squad and was invaluable with his interactions within the player group.

To the Team Manager, Duncan Holmes who was unfailing in his support and reliability. He was always ready to go beyond the brief of his positions to assist the campaign.

To Haig Sare as First Grade Coach for his advice, direction and support throughout the season. I believe Warringah Rugby has found another outstanding coaching talent in Haig and he will very quickly develop into a formidable Coach.

To the other Club Coaches for sharing the vision and direction of success for Warringah Rugby.

Finally to the Board and members of the Warringah Rugby Club for the privilege of coaching at the Rats.

Go the Rats!!!

Chris Coleman
COACH - 2nd Grade

The Fabric Of A Club

It is often said that the 3rd grade team is the gauge by which you can determine the true state of any rugby club. An ever changing roster of players coming through the ranks who have the potential to be future 1st graders, mixed in with players drifting back down the grades, sharing their knowledge as they enter the twilight of their Rugby careers. This makes 3rd grade the fabric on and off the field which holds a club together.

Tremendous club spirit was displayed by this year's playing group, with many of the guys playing multiple games each Saturday. Whether it be through helping 4th grade fulfil their obligations, or not taking a backward step whilst on the field for 2nd grade. In part this contributed to our sometimes poor results.

A Determined Spirit

Throughout the season there were many fine performances by individuals, often in adverse situations. Craig Edmonson must have played nearly every position on the field including an incredibly brave (or stupid) act, when he and Tim Dalecki jumped into the front row to pack down against a formidable West Harbour scrum.

As the third person alongside them in the front row, I can safely say that the proceeding 55 minutes was not the most enjoyable I've ever had. The boys were definitely not channelling Topo Rodriguez and Butch Walker, but they did display the dogged determination that our club has been built on and showed that no matter how tough the task at hand or how dangerous, we will not shirk the challenge.

Jake and Michael Letts returned to Australia toward the end of the season and managed to steer the team around for some of the best performances of the year. George Wylie was his usual annoyance to the opposition and who can forget Michael Ritchie's try-saving tackle in the dying minutes to secure victory over Gordon.

Captain Sam Reid was struck down early in the season and battled to return to the field with any consistency. He was not a lone figure on the injured list. I thank those injured players for sticking with the team and helping out on game days and training.

A big thank you as well to John Sullivan, Grant Andrews, Rugby Director Greg Gerrard, former Eastwood hero Scott Reid and President Mike Sheeran who all, at separate times, held the mantle of coach. Their teachings and efforts in getting the team prepared for battle each week was at times very challenging but much appreciated.

Question Of Commitment

I believe that this group of players has massive potential and are naturally good rugby players. Although some individuals may need to ask themselves to what level they are prepared to commit in order for them to reach that potential.

Throughout the season Michael Ritchie displayed huge character and energy every Saturday and on the training paddock. It is this leadership and hunger that will take the team forward if it's adopted by more of the team.

The Sydney Premier Rugby competition has developed to the point that it is now necessary for all grades to do the extras off the field just to stay competitive. Lower grade players on the most part throughout the comp are bigger, stronger and faster than they have ever been and we cannot just rely on natural ability any longer.

If 3rd grade is in fact the gauge to judge the club than it would be fair to say that our club is full of promise, we rise to the occasion on the field and enjoy what Rugby has to offer away from the field in true Rats spirit.

4TH GRADE REPORT 2013

COLTS 1ST GRADE REPORT 2013 - Mark Fargus

Hard Work Pays Off

Top four finish, heaps of fun along the way, some crazy bus trips, rock concert drama, some crushing defeats, a string of quality victories, serious injuries, two wins in the finals – this season had it all!

We achieved a satisfying result because a group of quality people worked extremely hard for a long period of time to give a collection of Rats a shot in the big time. You must understand, the Sydney Colts competition is the best Under 20 competition in the world, and Warringah stood up and said "we deserve to be here".

Special mention and commendation to Shaun Killian, Tim Daleki, Peter Rayner, Murray Pitt and Phantom for the outstanding contributions they made. Shaun is a 1st Grade coach of the future, and Tim is simply world class. We are all very lucky to have them all at Warringah.

Character Defines Success

The player group in 2013 experienced many highs and lows. The squad contained some quality football players, but the entire group displayed great character.

Many lifted their effort to support their team mates, and in doing so displayed the true meaning of "Warringah spirit". With the correct guidance over the next two years, this group will lead the Rats into a highly successful era. All could play, all could sing, all could party. When we got the priorities right, they were extremely successful.

I don't like to single out individual players in team reports, but Captain Harry McBryde deserves special mention. Selected by his peers, Harry led by example and was a pleasure to work with.

I wish all the players the very best as we move into preparation for a new season. Warringah is a great club, and you all have done the club proud.

Mark Fargus
COACH - Colts 1st Grade

Courage And Passion

2013 was a year of learning, both on and off the field, for the Rats colts and in particular 2nd Grade. Although we did not register the victories we would have liked for a club that measures itself by on-field success, many of the young men in the group made significant improvements, with some making a major contribution in 1st Grade's late finals push.

The team never lack commitment on the training paddock with strong numbers every Tuesday and Thursday even towards the end of the season when the semis were out of reach. The boys also played with courage and passion for the Green Jersey. Olli Moss playing 40 minutes with a broken collar bone against the Evil Empire (aka SUFC) was typical of the attitude.

New Rat Spirits Emerge

To the boys that made up the core of the 2nd XV, a big thank you. Will Sheehan, who captained the team most of the year, did a great job in difficult circumstances. His game improved every week and I look forward to seeing him progress.

Mike Hart in his 1st season of senior footy was a revelation. He was expected to play his part in 3rd Grade, but stepped up to be a very strong performer in 2nd's and occasionally 1st Grade. These performances were on the back of strong, enthusiastic training. With a full pre-season under his belt next year, the future is bright.

Jack Wheatley worked hard all year in the 2nd row and made a massive impact at loose head prop in 1st Grade during the Semi Finals. I think we have found your spot Jack! Cam Milling was a brilliant clubman all year. Great attitude and club spirit, Cam was a pleasure to coach (just hit the gym nice and early this year Cam!).

All the boys had some great moments during the year but consistency of effort will be needed to improve our winning percentage in 2014. This will only come from a big pre-season and getting fitter and stronger than the Uni's, Manly's and Eastwood's. I know we can do it.

Stepping Up

To the boys heading to Grade next year, step up! You will kill them! This is what Colts is all about: Making the Rats a stronger club from the ground up.

Special thanks to Dave Scharkie for his work with the backs. He was great to work with. Also thanks to John "Phantom" Millar who was a mountain of support. It was fun to laugh and cry and solve the problems of the rugby world with Phantom! In Shawn Killian Warringah has a 1st Grade coach of the future. Hard working and knowledgeable, Shawn was also gracious with everyone. I look forward to watch his coaching career flourish

Thanks to Mike Sheehan and GM's Mandy Morton and Josh Smith. Warringah Rugby Club is a club where a few good people are expected to do so much! Sorry for the heated mails and at times difficult conversations. But your efforts and hard work was always appreciated.

Lastly thank you to Mark Fargus. Mark did a magnificent job as Head Coach of Colts. I learned so much about rugby this year from Mark. He was very supportive in a sometimes difficult season. The charge to semi finals by 1st Grade on the back of his great coaching and a group of brilliant young players was so exciting to see. Im so pleased Mark has joined my rugby club. Warringah is stronger for it.

Our 50th season looks to be a promising one with things in place to improve our player depth and off-field effort. I look to working with everyone again in 2014.

Murray Pitt
COACH - Colts 2nd Grade

Returning To The Fold

What a wonderful thrill it was for me to finally return to the Rats after many years away with Subbies and Juniors and to join the 2013 Colts Coaching Team. A huge bonus learning and working with the team, Head Coach Mark Fergus, backline guru Shawn Killian, the effervescent Peter Raynor, my old team mate and true Rats stalwart Murray Pitt, the enigma Dave Sharkey and our resident hard man Tim Dalecki. A wonderful opportunity to gain and share knowledge and I could not have hoped to face the challenges of this season with a finer group of dedicated and talented coaches.

I will also start this report with a special personal thanks to our Colts support team. Paul Rand was railroaded into the management job and was his usual dedicated and capable self. Sean Vale, Ian Ritche, Paul Blomfield, Scott Reid all helped make our season's journey fun and possible and of course I need to thank the Rats management, President Mike Sheeran, Greg Gerrard, Josh Smith, Mandy Morton, Lesley McFayden and of course Turbo for their willingness and efforts to support Colts in 2013.

Miracles At Crucial Times

The 3rd Grade Colts season proved to be a series of miracles, wrapped up in a roller coaster of rugby disappointments and triumphs. Not sure from the start whether we had the numbers to even field a team. All the Colts players voted to commit to getting 3rd Grade on the field and throughout the season it was always a case of pitching in to get a side on the park.

Miracles occurred over so many weeks with a team sheet of blank spaces on Friday afternoon turning into a full side by kick off (or sometimes a bit after kick off). Over 60 different players ended up getting a 3rd Grade run during the season (that must be a record?). With huge input from local Dee Why, Narrabeen and Newport Juniors at crucial times and the amazing willingness of several Colts to backup for the Thirsties, we managed three wins, five bonus points and so many hard luck stories I could write a book.

Close Calls And Big Wins

3rd Grade lost eight games by 12 or less and given our habit of being two tries down after 10 minutes (11 games) we ended up winning 10 second halves (yes I know that means squat on the table) and basically gave our all in every contest. Highlights included a huge victory against Manly in Round One in what was a classic local grudge match and unlucky losses to the eventual 3rd Grade Colts premiers Easts in both rounds. In the end we missed out on the semis by a whisker.

Typical of 3rd Grade this year was the Wests Games. In Round One we fielded 13 Forwards, cycled the ball for over 20 phases several times and struggled to put the ball over the line. Then in Round two fielded 12 backs in the side, scored at will when we had the pill but couldn't win a ruck to save ourselves. We ended up losing both games by the same single try.

Despite the ups and downs I have to say I could not have been more impressed with the enormous potential the Iron Warriors of 3rd Grade showed at times. Various we dominated in the forwards against teams much bigger than ourselves and at other times scored some sizzling backline tries (depended on who we could get on the park).

Unearthing New Talent

3rd Grade has unearthed some awesome talent this year, particularly some of the juniors and schoolboys that helped us out during the season. Our returning veterans (most of whom are still eligible) have grown in grit and talent and will make a difference to the Rats success in future years. So many 3rd Graders played key roles backing up or being selected for higher grades throughout the season. They never failed to support the Colts group as a whole and showed real Rats spirit on and off the paddock.

A Team Full Of Characters

Our younger players showed they have the potential to soar and our older players showed genuine leadership and courage. This was so obviously demonstrated at Sydney University in round two where with 47 unavailable players we contested strongly in 3rds and 2nds with 19 players for both teams.

We had great characters in the team. Mad Max "Scotland" Antliff was a genuine BraveHeart warrior all year as was the strongman Mike Rand, stalwarts Darcy Norrish and Mitch Rosic, young guns up front Caleb O'Neill, Jack Mooney, Cael Carmont, James Passmore, Brendon Davidson, hard man Grant Edmonson. Willing and young backs like Jake Lack-Boroughs, Josh Fenley, Bryce Renamen and our leaders Nick Ritchie, Jake Renemen and Nick Condon.

The versatile Will Furness and Jake Price, talented link men Jono Millar, Brayden Witham, Lachlan Grant, Carlie Seuters and Ian Luciano, slick backs Sam Rose, Jackson Starhia, Jake Vale, Alex O'Shea, Brett Batchelor, Harry Thomsen, Josh Tomsen, Chad McMillian and a host of guest appearances and other contributions from far and wide. I am very appreciative of every player who strapped on the boots for us.

Laying Foundations

While you could look at the table and say it was a tough season, we have laid down the building blocks for many more victories in the coming seasons. We were young and quick to learn technique but only slowly came to the realisation that more training and commitment is needed to turn effort and talent into results. 3rd Grade 2013 is a bellwether for the club, showing us the very real prospect of the Rats being a force in the Colts world for many years to come if we choose to learn the lessons from this season.

I am personally very proud of all the players I had the privilege to coach this season, challenging them to become harder and better and seeing them rise to the occasion again and again. I rate this season as a winning example of rugby's and Warringah's ability to find and nurture fine young men and good athletes and I want to congratulate them on their efforts this year and encourage every one of them to stay involved, keep growing and find the joy in this great game and great club.

Thank you all for a wonderful experience and Carn the Rats in 2014.

John Milham
COACH - Colts 3rd Grade

Premiership Glory

Season 2013 was once again challenging and ultimately rewarding. It was a season where we once again built towards the finals and finished with our best match in the Grand Final.

The grand final was a physical contest punctuated with pace and skill that ultimately led to us winning the trophy again, the eighth time in 11 seasons. Congratulations to all the girls, from the Aussie reps to the brand new players. It is this mesh of old and new that is integral to our success each year.

Key Milestone Achieved

During the season we celebrated a momentous occasion with Lynda "Skitz" Roberston becoming the first female Rat to reach the milestone of 200 games for the club. We also believe that Lynda is the first female in NSW to reach this milestone, however the records of the early days of NSW Women's Rugby aren't great.

Lynda is the epitome of versatility, having covered almost every position over the course of those 200 matches. She spent this season at number 9 and 7 providing exceptional cover for all other positions at the same time! She is an integral part of the team and we are all looking forward to the next 200 games Skitz!

Dominating Nationals

The season finished with eight Ratettes being selected to play in the Sydney team at the ARU National Championships. The Sydney team played an impressive tournament which culminated in lifting the trophy after beating QLD in the finals 22-3. Well done to those that played Nationals and good luck with upcoming Wallaroo's selection for the World Cup in 2014.

Once again I was assisted by Peter Hammond this season. It is a pleasure to coach with Hammer and I cannot thank him enough for his input and knowledge. I would also like to thank the club for their assistance, in particular Turbo and Luke Holmes who were always putting their hand up to help wherever possible.

Next season will be a challenge with the 15s World Cup and tour to NZ we will need a good influx of new talent to fill the places of those girls selected. I look forward to seeing last year's squad at pre-season to ensure we are ready to defend our title next year.

NOTES TO AND FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2013

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial report is a Special Purpose Financial Report.

The financial report is for the entity Warringah Rugby Club Limited as a single entity. The Warringah Rugby Club Limited is a company limited by guarantee, incorporated and domiciled in Australia.

The financial report has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001, except for the following directors' determination.

The directors have determined that the financial report be prepared as a Special Purpose Financial Report. The directors' determination is made cognisant that the company is a reporting entity under the provisions of Part 2M of the Corporations Act 2001. The directors' determination is based upon the premise that a General Purpose Report places an unrealistic administrative requirement on the company.

The following Australian Accounting Standard has been applied in the preparation of this report:

AASB 101: Presentation of Financial Statements

No other Accounting Standards or other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board have been applied.

The financial report has been prepared on an accruals basis and is based on historical costs. It does not take into account changing money values or, except where stated, current valuations of non-current assets. Cost is based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets.

The following is a summary of the material accounting policies adopted by the company in the preparation of the financial report. The accounting policies have been consistently applied, unless otherwise stated.

(a) Income Tax

No provision for income tax has been raised as the company is exempt from income tax under Division 50 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

(b) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

(c.) Property, Plant and Equipment

Each class of property, plant and equipment is carried at cost or fair value as indicated, less, where applicable, accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

WARRINGAH RUGBY CLUB LIMITED

ABN 57 000 497 398

NOTES TO AND FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Plant and equipment is measured on the cost basis.

The carrying amount of plant and equipment is reviewed annually by the directors to ensure it is not in excess of the amount recoverable from those assets. The recoverable amount is assessed on the basis of the expected net cash flows which will be received from the assets employed and their subsequent disposal.

The depreciable amounts of all fixed assets are depreciated over their estimated useful lives to the company commencing from the time the assets are acquired and held ready for use.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less and net of bank overdrafts.

(e) Revenue

Revenue from rendering of a service is recognised upon delivery of the service to the customers. Other revenue is recognised when the right to receive that revenue has been established. All revenue is stated net of the amount of goods and services tax.

(f) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenue, expenses and assets are recognised net of any GST except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office. In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or the expense item. Receivables and payables in the statement of financial position are shown inclusive of GST.

Cash flows are presented in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis, except for the GST components of investing and financing activities, which are disclosed as operating cash flows.
