President's Report

PHILLIP PARSONS

A Memorable Year

It was a great honour for me to be the President of Warringah Rugby Club in our 50th year. I want to personally thank the directors, volunteers, support staff, coaches and players for making it a memorable one. This year our sponsors really made a difference to our season. They went beyond financial support - they got actively involved in making the year a success. We had sponsors stacking fridges and even running water.

Our supporters are the envy of the other clubs and the Hillbillies certainly lead the charge. They bought game day alive, the players and all involved are very grateful for their commitment to the Club.

The Friends of Warringah again made a serious contribution to our season. Special thanks to Brendan Paddison for his tireless energy.

Key Highlights for 2014

Highlights for the year were many and often, but two stand out. Our 50th ball was a fantastic event and truly marked time in a splendid fashion. We had a room full of people spanning the 50 years of our existence and that energy will push us along for another 50 years.

Winning the Bayfield Cup in such a fashion was truly the reason why we all love this game. It was a joint effort from everybody who supports this Club. The players that day stood on the shoulders of all who care about this club and support it. Neville Bayfield would have been very proud.

All four grade teams and our women's team made the finals and took us a few more weeks into the season, while 3rd grade certainly entertained to the end. All teams showed they are real contenders and they will be back for an even better season in 2015.

We had many players achieve higher honours and we saw many players step up and really be the best they can be. We had nine players in the Rays and while they may not have made the finals they certainly provided the most entertaining rugby.

Meeting Commercial Goals

Commercially the club also took a big step forward, underpinned by a three year lease with council to operate the ground and retain the bar and gate revenue. It should be mentioned that Pittwater Council were incredible supportive in the process. We paid back our directors loans and finished the year with a sustainable surplus. Costs did follow revenue but the new board will remain focused on improving the systems that underpin our commercial activity.

Looking to Season 2015

We have started preparing for our 2015 season and training has already started. Luke Holmes has been reappointed as General Manager and his fantastic efforts in our 2014 season should be noted. He grew into the GM role and brought with him his entire family supporting the club. Haig Sare has been reappointed as Warringah District Head Coach in an expanded role. Congratulations to Haig. We continue to build our coaching and support staff roster for 2015.

In some ways it was a great year but I'm looking for the Silverware in 2015 and our Club goals are now higher.

Again thank you all for supporting Warringah Rugby Club in its 50th season and I look forward to seeing you all back at Rat Park in 2015!

A Year Of Financial Change

I am happy to present the audited Financial Reports for Season 2014. It has been a challenging financial year with, amongst other things, a dramatic drop in the ARU grant, the sound decision to hire a full time General Manager, a new contractual relationship with Pittwater Council, leading to the operation of gate, car park, canteen and bar facilities (without historical records to predict revenue or expenditure), the discovery of an additional $20,000 of Directors loans liabilities, a new financial contribution to the Northern Rays of about $32,000 this calendar year, together various unusual expenses for the 50th year.

New Revenue Streams

With so many unknowns, the trading activities of the gate, car parking, canteen and bar have proved a success and sustained us (together with our dedicated major sponsors including the Bayfields, Crawfords and Friends of Warringah) throughout the year. We have managed to clear all Directors loans and Season 2015 will start with a clean slate.

Building A Strong Future

The challenge for 2015 is whether we can now turn the corner, not live from hand to mouth, and put something away for future generations. I have been most grateful for the support of Luke Holmes and it is pleasing to see that Warringah now provides a pathway for Sports Administration as well as traditional player development. The season would not have been such a success without his conscientious efforts.

A Departing Message

This year has been like most years – chatting with players, praying for players and staff, and being a person that players and staff could come and talk to about any issues that life throws at them.

At the end of the season I stepped down as the Club's Chaplain. I have considered it a privilege to be the Club's Chaplain for the past six years.

I would like to thank the President Phil Parsons for his ongoing support of me in the role over my time as Chaplain. I would also like to thank the many others who have also been friendly and supportive.

I want to wish the person who takes up the role as future Chaplain all the best. I hope to still come along next year to some of the games with my family to support the Rats.

God Bless,

A New Appointment

It's an honour to have had a player welfare role at the Rats this year!

This is my first involvement with the club and it's been great to meet some of the staff and players over the course of the season.

As a local church pastor I consider it a privilege to be able to support, help and serve the Rats community by offering a listening ear (in confidence), encouraging when times are tough or providing practical assistance where needed.

I'm looking forward to 2015 and to exploring how we can continue to serve the Warringah Rugby Club community.

I'm always up for a chat and anyone is welcome to contact me on 0421 905 999.

Key Goals Equalled Success

2014 marked the 50th Year in the Rats proud history. This occasion was not lost amongst our playing group as we vowed to honour and do justice to all those who had gone before us. Whilst we set our primary target as being Club Champions for such a monumental year, 1st XV were here to give this competition a shake and come powering into the final series with guns blazing. Although we were not named Club Champions, I think it is safe to say that the Club achieved the next best thing, with all four grades qualifying for the finals and 1st grade playing a style that threatened any opponent at any stage in the competition.

The competition games kicked off with the hard lessons learned over the past few seasons fresh in our player's minds. We declared our trials would be our triumphs one day and it seemed that day had come, with our once tested set piece now being the rock for our attacking prowess. This led the way to a winning streak of five. We enjoyed victory over West Harbour, Souths (giving a lesson in clinical rugby in the second half), Parramatta, Easts and a thrilling 33-31 victory over powerhouse Sydney University at home.

First Derby A Turning Point

Heading into Round 6, we were sitting second only to Manly who were ahead simply on for and against. As the rugby god's would have it, Round 6 was the local Derby and the stage was set, with both teams still undefeated. In front of a packed Manly Oval, the Rats did our fans proud as once again our back line gave a lesson in how to launch with some scintillating plays and tries. Unfortunately the sheer size of the Manly forwards became too much for our boys in the second half and Manly ran out deserved winners.

Historically, the game after the Derby had always proven a tough one, as the boys struggled to "get up" after the emotion of the week before. Evidently, our 50th year was no different against West Harbour. With only seven minutes to go and Wests scoring once again to extend their lead to two converted tries, I began to plan my post match address, expecting our second consecutive loss. What occurred over the final seven minutes epitomised our name sakes, "The Rats of Tobruk". The boys refused to admit defeat and finished the game as spectacular winners with two length-of-the-field tries in succession. The home crowd was at a loss, as their previous gloating and cheers now turned into cries of disbelief and frustration. The team won but we did not play well, which was echoed over the next three matches with scratchy wins over Norths, Gordon and Penrith.

A New Maturity In The Team

Although the team was not firing at optimum levels, we had found a way to win regardless of our form. This is a sign of a mature football team and a far cry from seasons past. Our second loss of the year came at the hands of eventual Premiers, Eastwood. We were comprehensively beaten at the breakdown and given a lesson on error-free rugby. Fortunately the team bounced back with three more consecutive wins against Randwick, Easts (who had just knocked off undefeated Manly) and Penrith. The team once again had hit some form and wanted that momentum to continue against Souths as a rematch against Manly was only one week away. Unfortunately our plan was squashed by a far more desperate and physical opponent in Southern Districts. This game proved to be the worst performance of the year and we certainly deserved the loss.

For such a monumental year, 1st XV were here to give this competition a shake and come powering in the final series with guns blazing.

A Significant Victory

The local Derby rematch was now upon us and I think there may have been a few nervous supporters heading into Manly match after the week that had just passed. I was more than happy to remind the team that only a week prior many of our supporters were seen leaving the ground early - that something extraordinary would be required to conquer these much fancied Manly giants.

The game plan of Manly was made obvious with the Marlins coaching staff making it clear through the Manly Daily that they wanted to bully us in the forwards. Extraordinary was what it was going to take to beat these huge men and extraordinary was what the team delivered. In front of a packed out Rat Park we smashed the Marlins not only physically, but on the scoreboard, recording a remarkable victory 43-34. This victory in our 50th year meant we regained the Bayfield Cup - the first time in nine years. This game also earned extensive media coverage on the back of a 100m try from behind our post that passed through countless sets of hands before Micky Adams scored in the corner. The footage was replayed around the country and ultimately earned FoxSports 2014 "Best Try" award. This match proved to be a shot in the arm that club rugby needed, with supporters from both clubs enjoying a fantastic day of running rugby.

The Race To The Finals

The dreaded post-Manly match slump struck once again, with the team unable to match the high standards achieved the week before, just going down to a far more desperate Randwick at Coogee Oval. With only one round to go against Eastwood, the team had secured a finals position. But a loss to Eastwood unfortunately dropped the team to 4th. We had achieved our goal of reaching the finals and done so in a way that no other team was able to replicate with consistent, long distance entertaining "Rats" tries.

Edged Out By A Point

The first game of the finals brought us head-to-head with a very nervous Sydney University. We had beaten them by one point earlier in the year however unlike previous games, we failed to finish a team off when the writing was on the wall. Remarkably University called upon their finals experience and beat us at the death by only a point. The post-match speech was one of frustration but we all seemed keen to get stuck into our next training session on Tuesday night and make up for it the following week. However rugby can be a funny game sometimes and often catches all by surprise. Surprise would be an understatement when summarising the thoughts of those who witnessed 6th ranked Souths defeat 1st ranked Eastwood at T.G.Millner the day after our Uni loss. A last minute Eastwood penalty goal from right in front missed, meaning not only the Woods losing the game, but consequently the Rats were knocked out of the finals. This was certainly not the way we had envisioned 1st XV year ending, a sentiment echoed by many rival clubs.

With our season now over in a fashion that certainly seemed unfinished, the boys were left to cheer the lower grades on in the remaining finals. This being said, each player that had the honour of wearing the white jersey in our 50th year can definitely hold their heads high. We had earned the tag as entertainers of the competition and won many sought after cups including: The Bayfield Cup with our victory over Manly, the Cam Blades Cup with victory over Gordon and retained the Yalumba Cup with another victory over Eastern Suburbs.

Hamish Angus celebrates with his father Ken Angus after winning the 2014 Ken Catchpole Medal and Roscoe Fay Trophy

Other notable achievements we enjoyed included: FoxSports "Best Try" of 2014, achieved the three highest rating TV audiences for ABC's televised "Match of the Day", we secured 10 players into the inaugural NRC competition - nine for the North Harbour Rays and one, Cameron Treloar, in the NSW Country Eagles.

Ken Catchpole Milestones

Finally, Hamish Angus was a deserved winner of both the Ken Catchpole award for best player in the competition as voted by the referee's and the Roscoe Fay trophy as highest point scorer in the competition. He received both awards for the second time in his career. Hamo's achievement also meant that, since it was first awarded, a Rats player has received the Ken Catchpole medal more times than any other club - not bad for a club only 50 years young and certainly a nice way for a fantastic year to end.

Behind The Team's Success

On a personal level I would like to thank each and every player for the efforts they made this season. I could not be more proud of the group in the way they handled themselves both on and off the field, spending time with this group was regularly the highlight of my week and I look forward to future successes with you. I would also like to thank my assistant coach Michael Lipman who set a new set of high standards for the forwards to follow and deserves a lot of the credit for the growth our pack enjoyed. Lippo's invaluable international and super rugby experience as a player was welcomed by many of the boys hoping to follow in his footsteps and he certainly proved another weapon for the Rats in 2014.

A thank you must also go to our Captain Luke Holmes. Luke led the boys heroically from the front, whilst often proving that pain is no obstacle as he consistently played through injury.

A massive amount of appreciation must go to our tireless manager Mike Sheeran who was the unwavering hand of support, not only for the players but for myself. There was never a job too big or too small for Sheero, who was often the first bloke in the change rooms each match day and the last to leave. On behalf of the club thank you for all your efforts of the last few years and we look forward to seeing you on the Hill while you enjoy a well-deserved rest.

I would also like to say a massive thank you to our entire medical staff led by our amazing physio Frankie Faulkner, Dr Tom Harwood and our chiropractor Dave Stevens. You are all an invaluable part of the team, often not receiving the accolades you all deserve - so thank you.

Scott Bradley looks to offload to Sireli Tagicakibau during the clash against Gordon.

Finally I would like to thank all the supporters and members who make the Club what it is today. It was an honour to lead the players for such a historical year and represent such a proud successful Club. I can't wait for 2015!

Go the Rats!

Haig Sare

Preparation Is Key

In the words of the legendary British television presenter Bruce Forsyth "What do points make?...Prizes"!! The introduction of a squad training approach embedded a strong culture across the playing group, emphasising our values, attitudes and expectation for the forthcoming season. Intensity throughout a structured and successful pre-season created competition and pressure for selection not previously seen in my time at the Rats. As we arrived at the 1st round with approximately 12 players making their club or grade debuts, there was an air of excitement and expectation around what this 2nd grade team was capable of achieving.

Signs Of Things To Come

That afternoon our performance against Wests was a statement of things to come and a blue print for our season. Phases and moments of a well structured, executed set piece, high intensity, brilliant, confident football undermined by moments of madness, a lack of confidence, self belief and focus.

As coaches, Mark Gerrard, Edward Doyle and I remained confident that if we could create the right environment and empower the team, the potential was tremendous. Evidently we didn't quite get it right, which is frustrating, as the players showed at times throughout the season just how good they could be.

We competed against every team in the competition. Unfortunately you can't play for only 60 minutes and expect to beat the likes of Eastwood, Uni and Manly. Dropped points against these three, plus Norths, Wests and Easts cost us a top four finish and put our finals hopes in the hands of others. Fortunately results went our way and we finished a respectable 5th.

Our performance against Manly in the semi confirmed my belief that we had the ability to win the competition, but perhaps not the self confidence or yet the maturity to close out the big games. We competed, and at times controlled Manly but yet again were unable to convert our opportunities into points, with our rivals taking out the ultimate prize.

Courage To Dream Big

At times during the season I'm sure I sounded like a broken record; 80 minute focus, confidence, opportunity and back yourselves. It was pretty much the same message week-in-week-out. To whomever has the pleasure of working with these boys in 2015, I would stress the same message and a focus on those small 1%'s that make such a difference. In the words of Walt Disney "Dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them."

Thanks to Gerrado and Doyley, it was a pleasure and an honour to work with you both. And to all the players who tested my every nerve throughout the season, you have the ability and 2015 brings more opportunities, so dream big and back yourselves!! Cheers!

A Coaching Twist

When Haig Sare approached me about coaching at the Rats I had to take a step back, being a Marlin that loved nothing more than belting the 'bejesus' out of the Rats in years gone by! Would I be seen as a traitor? How could I walk into The Steyne again or stroll along the Corso without being jeered and ridiculed? Then I remembered all the great times that I'd had after many a local derby with the Rats blokes, not to mention their girlfriends. So I agreed.

I rang another ex-Marlin and bush rugby legend, Scott Gourley, enlisting his services and went down to Rat Park to meet the other coaches. We were told that we would be coaching 3rd grade. All good!

Preseason was hot but gradually players turned up. Two weeks in, Scott and I were introduced to the newly-appointed 4th grade coach. Lachie Fear said "This is John Roberts, he's going to coach 4th grade". I was pretty sure the guy he was pointing to was the famous Robbo from North Steyne who graced many a 'Wanted' poster. When Haig asked him what previous coaching experience he had, he replied that he knew a few! Oh, and he had coached downhill skiing as well! When Robbo's first warm up session resembled an equestrian course I knew that this was going to be an interesting season!

Results Show Early On

Training revved up during the next two weeks and numbers grew. It was looking like we'd have enough players for both 3rd and 4th grades, unlike 2013 apparently. But I suggested that perhaps the best way to go was to train all of the boys as one squad. Scott just smiled! Robbo replied "Jog it in!" I guess that meant that they approved?

The trials started with six wins from six starts for the 'squad'! Bring on the season!

We stumbled through the first couple of 3rd grade games playing well but not cohesively enough to get the points. As 4th grade were undefeated after the first few games, training really started to heat up!

The appointment of Haydn Black as Captain galvanized the forward pack, and we were beginning to see the emergence of arguably the slickest 3rd grade back line that the Rats had seen in many years! Most were Rats Colts (Mice?) from last year, which was fantastic to see!

We travelled down to Manly Oval and gave them a belting in both grades, much to the chagrin of both Scott's and my old Marlin team mates, who were rendered speechless. Rats 3rd and 4th grade were WINNERS and I was later escorted from their clubhouse!!

Self Belief Breeds Success

Training as one squad proved to be a good initiative. It developed great camaraderie and allowed all players – both experienced and new, to be exposed to three completely different coaches who had the same beliefs and commitment to both each other and the type of rugby we wanted to play.

As the season progressed you could feel the passion building. Some of the older guys started to believe that this could be the year. Thursday night's training would end with the whole squad in a huddle talking about the upcoming games on the Saturday. It really was fantastic to watch a group of young men whose ages spanned nearly two decades and incorporated three or four different nationalities, becoming united as one team!

History will show that the 3rd and 4th grade teams both made the finals, with 4th grade falling one game short of the grand final and 3rd grade getting beaten by Uni in the Grand Final.

A New Approach

The 2014 Shute Shield was lauded by the astute, applauded by the faithful and propped up by the three lower grades that proudly play before Warringah's Shute Shield Team!

I had the privilege to coach our 4th grade team that contested the Henderson Shield. Once we started pre-season training it became apparent that we might be better off training the 3rd & 4th grade sides as one squad, thus providing more players with the chance to be exposed to two of the top 10 coaches ever, Greg Marr & Scott Gourley, and also making my "job" a dream!

Pat Beck in action against Eastwood

Before our first trial we had 40 blokes giving it their all, which apparently was unheard of in past years. We had all players volunteer to trial in both grades but, hey, they are only trials, or so we were told!

Commitment Gets Results

At the penultimate training session you could feel something. I thought of Dennis Denuto from The Castle! There was a real "VIBE" that the boys were into it. They were part of a club that had four strong squads. No longer would they wake up on a Saturday and think "I wonder if we'll have enough for 4th grade?" Now, on Friday nights they were thinking "I should go home it's nearly 1pm!" They were part of a 'team'!

After the first four games, 4th grade were undefeated & 3rd grade were under the pump! The boys trained well that week & we ended Thursday night training with a 75% contact session, 3rds against 4ths, and within 60 seconds they were ripping into each other with full contact! Greg, Scott & I just looked at each other & laughed with pure delight!

New Milestones Achieved

That Saturday we played Sydney Uni at home. With 5 minutes to go in 4th grade Uni were awarded a penalty 20m's out from our line. They could have taken the three points and claimed an ugly win but they said "scrum, please sir". Turbo looked at them & said "are you sure? ". The referee stomped his foot points on the mark, we hit hard, won the tight head, set the backs alight, then 'picked and drove' 60m's to score an unbelievable try, beating Uni.

The local derbies against the Marlins went very well for us in 2014. Both 3rd and 4th grade beat Manly five times in 2014! I am sure that's never happened before and it's because of the players who made up this year's 3rd and 4th grade squad, not the coaches!

At least 35 blokes, who this year trained and played for each other! The guys who, more often than not, warmed the bench! The guys who came to training injured! They were all very important members of this year's squad! OUR 3rd and 4th grade players! I thank every one of them for the past season! Go the Rats!

MARK FARGUS

Honouring Club Tradition

The First Colts of 2014 did not get the results we had all hoped for, and while the scoreboard determines team 'status' at the end of the season, this group can be proud of the way they conducted themselves. This group maintained the traditions that have made Rats Rugby what it is, and their courage and determination in tough situations lived up to all the standards set by previous Warringah player groups.

This was a young group. If this group stays together in 2015, they will have much better results simply because they will be one year older. In all games this year the team either led or were in the game after 30 minutes. Then the grind from older, more experienced opposition turned each game. This pattern continued week after week, but individual development was hampered by injury and unavailability. We went through a lot of players this year, but every time someone new came into the team, they always gave 100%.

Leading By Example

The team was led by Callum Reid. Callum played with direction and skill at half back, and I must mention that he played the second part of the season with a major injury. We were short on numbers, and he led by example. He even doubled up in 3^{rds} a few times. He is a proud Rat, and the Club should be proud of him.

The entire group was led by Will Sheehan and Cam Milling. Both were exceptional leaders, and as Colts Club Captains they maintained high standards in Club spirit and off-field activities. Will has a bright future as a five-eight in grade, and Cam will enjoy the slower pace of grade footie. Both went the extra yard for Warringah Colts week after week after week.

Number eight Tim Poynting was the "Best Forward" in Colts. Openside flanker Mike Lloyd was the "Rookie of the Year". Prop/backrower Jack Slack-Smith was the most improved forward in 1st grade. Tasi Tuituiohu, "Big Kev" Palavi Fiu, Zac Jones, Callum Lantry, Alex Broad, the Reneman brothers, Charlie Suters, Jack Wheatley, Mike Hart, Max Cook, Caleb O'Neill, Chris Burchell, Cael Carmont, the Scoggs brothers, Harrison Judd (to name most) all made solid contributions. Eddie Ellwood-Hall was the "Best Back" in colts, and Jackson Stariha was the most improved in 1st grade. Elliot Mason, Jake Lowe, Jack Donlan, Tyson Davis, Ben Lyford, Liam Creeley, Cam Dove, Jon Ferguson, Matt Pickles, Harry Thompson, Tommo (to name most) also did good work. All represented the Club with determination and pride. 2014 did not get the results THIS YEAR, but watch out! This group will do special things for the Club in years to come.

Also special mention for Dylan Thompson. Dylan battled a shoulder injury for most of the year, but came week after week to run water and messages for all grades. Thank you, and good luck in preparation for next year.

Team Effort Off-Field

My thanks to Geoff Hannigan and the "group of Dads" who looked after the administration of Colts in 2014. They did a great job, but the future will be easier if full time managers can be found. Thank you all for your contributions and support.

Shaun Killian coached the backs in 1^{sts} and 2^{nds} in 2014 with skill and determination. His organization and direction helped mould and develop backlines that changed every week. His contribution was enormous, and he will be missed. Many of the backs he mentored in 2013 made significant contributions in grade footie this year, and his influence in the development of the Club cannot be understated.

Murray Pitt, John Milham and Alex Matheson all made enormous contributions as coaches this season.

This group can be proud of the way they conducted themselves.... this group maintained the traditions that have made Rats Rugby what it is.

Continued....

All put in long hours organizing teams and making adjustments at training and in games that made their tasks nearly impossible. All kept the Rat spirit alive and never gave up. Great people make a great club, and these people are the best.

Special mention of Vinnie Wright. Vinnie came to help Colts when injured in grade, and his enthusiasm and organization gave us a huge lift and really added to our work. Thank you.

Scott Killingworth and Tim Dalecki looked after our strength and conditioning. Wow - are these two different ! Both are proud Rats and both shared their knowledge and made hard training fun. Thank you.

Great Sportsmanship Shown

I must mention a special incident when we played Penrith at Rat Park. Penrith had only 18 players for two games, and after 15 minutes in first grade they were down 26-0 and dropping like flies. The Warringah reserves went and played for Penrith. By half time six Rats were wearing Penrith jumpers, and at the end of the game the Penrith coach wept in gratitude and admiration. It was a special moment when these Rats showed that they knew what the game of Rugby was all about. We were all very proud coaches

So, in summary, thanks to all involved in Colts in 2014. Our results were not great this year, but remember these players - their contributions on the scoreboards will be seen in the near future.

Passion For The Rats Jersey

Warringah Colts continued to learn throughout 2014. Although 2nd grade had a bright start with four wins from the first seven matches, injuries took their toll with the nucleus of the early season team being required for 1st grade. This meant a fade at the back end of the year as a young team took on more seasoned footballers.

The team however never lack commitment on the training paddock with strong numbers even towards the end of the season when the semis were out of reach. The boys always played with courage and passion for the Green Jersey.

To the boys that made up the core of the 2nd XV , a big thank you. Players such Andrew Scogs, Will Sheehan, Jake Reneman and Cam Milling did an outstanding job. Thanks to Scogsie for such loyalty and support as Captain. I look forward to watching his progression and the others to grade. Will Russell in his first season of senior footy was an unsung hero. His try against Eastwood will live in my memory a long time. He was missed when he went overseas with four rounds to go. Also missed was Cal Landry who was pound-for-pound the best forward in the Club. I look forward to seeing him be a key member of next year's XV squad.

Exciting Talent Emerges

We unearthed lots of great talent which augers well for 2015. Players like Bryce Renemen, Josh Thompson, Cael Carmont (when he stays home on Friday nights!), John Ferguson, Lachlan Grant and Sam Gainsford to name just a few. All had bright moments and have big years ahead of them with the Rats.

A special thank you to the two Nicks; Condon and Richie. Two good footballers whose season was affected by injury. I hope they are part of the Warringah grade set up next year.

Teamwork Extends Off-field

Thanks to the Club for its excellent off-field support. To the fathers that helped out, in particular Geoff Hannigan as Colts Chairman who put in so much of his time. Thanks also to President Phil Parsons and General Manager Luke Holmes. Awesome job gentlemen!

Lastly thank you to the other colts coaches Mark Fargus, John Milham, Alex Matherson and Scott Killingsworth for their dedication support and good humour. We were short staffed for most of the year and everyone chipped in. Also thank you to Vinnie Wright for his help while recovering from injury.

Congratulations to the Club in general for an excellent 2014. It was a great year with the "old feeling" returning to the club. I'm sure we can build on that so that all eight teams can compete in finals and achieve our ultimate goal of winning back the Club Championship. This "Colts thing" is a tough one to crack but I know we can get there. We are moving in the right direction off the field and have a strong core of young players to bring us success on it.

Bring on 2015!

Pre-Season And High Hopes

Starting my 2nd year coaching 3rd colts I was full of excitement and renewed enthusiasm. We started pre-season with a great plan and a great squad, lots of new faces, new support and high hopes. The coaching group was solid and I was joined in 3rd grade by a couple of young guns in Scotty "the Lion" Killingsworth and Alex "Maddog" Matheson who both developed into great Rugby thinkers and top draw coaches.

I personally thought we had a good pre-season and while the squad was young, it had heaps of potential yet as always Rugby throws up the unexpected challenges and is always a test of character. The year didn't quite pan out as well as expected.

A Great Test Of Character

We won four games and were so bloody close in many others, we played up against strong opposition and lost focus in some games we should have won. In the end we learnt heaps and grew lots and built a great platform for the 2015 season. Over the course of the season 3rd grade was really terrific at times, we always played with character, we always turned up and faced the challenges overcoming a huge injuries list, low player numbers and strong opposition.

Most importantly of all we never failed to be positive about the experience. In the end we were a bit too young and a bit too green to smash through to the finals (stayed close though). The last game against Eastwood, who were strong semi-finalists should have been ours and that was the true measure of the improvement over the season. A familiar story where with a bit more self belief (and training) we could have easily contested well in the finals.

Yet there was so many positives over the season. More than 75 different players ran on the field for 3rd grade (that has to be some sort of record). Colts suffered from a simply unbelievable injury toll this year and the 3rd grade warriors helped keep the higher grades on the paddock. It is always an enormous joy to see 3rd graders run on and perform well in 2nd and 1st grade during the season.

Skills And Potential Grow

Our scrum and forward play at times was top draw, we played strong against bigger, older and more numerous opponents and everyone I saw grew in skill and potential over the season. Our back line improved every game. Towards the end of the year we consistently made ground and breaks and started to really show the rugby we knew was possible. Just looking at the table doesn't tell you how close we were to success, it doesn't show you the guts and determination shown by 3rd Grade's Iron Warriors in the face of heavy odds. It doesn't highlight the superb talent brewing and percolating and ready to burst through and it doesn't hint at how much fun and mateship this team and indeed the whole Colts squad showed throughout the year.

It was also fantastic to have the Colts squad as a whole embrace the Warringah culture and attitude. The support from all players regardless of the grade was so encouraging and having players picked in higher grades standby and play to keep the Thirsties going makes me very proud to be a Rat.

There are so many great characters and great footballers in this squad and excitingly they will benefit much from this year as they come through to next season, the young players have grown in stature and experience, the older players have shown real leadership and commitment, I have no doubt with so many players eligible again for next season we will be able to start the year already at the next level and we will be very competitive in season 2015 across the grades.

A Worthwhile Challenge

My special thanks to the Colts Player Leadership especially Will Sheehan and Cam Milling for their effort and involvement all year (really great footballers and clubmen).

My very special thanks to co-coaches Alex and Scott and indeed to the wonderful colts crew Fargs, Sean, Vinne, Muzza, Hags, Condo, Dono etc for so much support and sharing (both pain and joy). I also congratulate the club, the Management (Parso, Haig and Luke) and all the senior coaches on a fantastic and inspirational season. I had personal support from all and loved feeling the vibe all year.

I wish our graduating players the best of luck as they continue their Rugby journey and I look forward to seeing the 2nd and 3rd year colts step up to achieve the success they deserve.

Finally as always I am so very proud of all the players I had the privilege to coach this season. What you are doing is not easy and not for the faint hearted. Rugby demands much but can deliver much as well. The men you play beside will become your life long friends, the club you represent will become a family for you and when you answer the call and run out on the field you are rising to meet a very personal and very worthwhile challenge, a challenge that will enhance your world and make a difference to your life. I know you all have greatness within and I look forward to seeing it blossom and fire in seasons to come.

Thank you all for the opportunity to be part of the Warringah Family.

Ratettes Shine in 7s and XV's

It was a year of ups and downs which were expected knowing that the 15s World Cup would be held in August. I think however it is fair to say the ups were more common than the downs and there were a few unexpected surprises that rounded off a great season, even if we didn't defend our title.

The year commenced with some great beach sessions and a fair few 7s tournaments, but once that rubbish was out of the way we got down to the real business of 15s rugby and defending the title. Of course I don't mean to call 7s rubbish, it is a great introductory tool for new players when starting out in women's rugby and with the addition of the sport to the Olympics it is providing amazing opportunities for the more svelte pacey players among us.

Chloe Dalton in action

It is however disappointing to see the ARU rule with such an iron fist when it comes to the elite players playing both 7s and 15s. I have no doubt that the Aussie 7s girls would both enjoy and benefit from playing club 15s and I know that our 4 or 5 players in the set up miss playing for the Rats a lot.

RWC And Road To Rio 2016

Whilst on the topic of 7s I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Chloe Dalton who threw the old hi tops in the bin, farewelled the Sydney Flames and gave rugby a crack this year. In the space of 10 months she has played a season of 15s, numerous 7s tournaments and most recently been selected in the Australian 7s team to play in the Noosa International 7s. Chloe joins the other Ratties girl in the 7s squad on their "Road to Rio 2016" and we wish them all the best of luck!

The 15s season was always going to be challenging knowing we were going to lose players to the World Cup at the end of the season but we were once again blessed with a fantastic influx of new players who each contributed so much this year. To all the Rat rookies, congratulations on how far you came this season and I look forward to watching your continued development in the green and white!

Premiership Crown Passes

We finished the season in 3rd place and faced off against Sydney Uni in the semi-final without our amazing World Cup reps, Tui Ormsby, Danielle Meskill and Cobie Jane Morgan. A few weeks earlier we had also lost our Captain and line out Commander Chris Ross to a nasty broken ankle.

Special mention however must go to Nat Maclarn who had made the switch from the wing to the row in the off season and had a great season. Uni were good that day and we were just not quite in the contest. Rockdale went on to beat Uni in the Grand Final and it was great to see a new winner of the Womens 15s competition in 2014.

Ratettes Report

Ratettes Nat Maclarn and Sarah Oxley give the thumbs up to a great year.

I have to make mention of the work done off the field this year by all involved with the club, from Luke to Turbo, the board, all the volunteers, the bar staff and Barry. I feel as a club we turned a corner and there was a buzz down at Rat Park again. It was great to be a part of and I know it will only get better. So whilst we may not have brought the trophy home in our great clubs 50th year we sure had a lot of fun and that is really what rugby is all about.

Congratulations to all the award winners this season and a special mention to Cassandra Williams and Tui Ormsby who both played their 100th matches this season.

Finally, thank you so much to my co-coach Peter "THE HAMMER" Hammond. I really couldn't do it without you and both I and the girls are so grateful for your contribution.

Rats 7s Make Their Mark

After a strong showing in the NSW Club 7s at the end of last season, (Warringah beaten by Norths in final) Warringah decided to embrace the 7s tournaments circuit and put together a squad.

In February we entered three tournaments. Crescent Head - knocked out in semi final we finished 3rd, Lake Macquarie - beaten in final and finished 2nd, Kiama - beaten in semi final and finished 4th. At the conclusion of this block of games Warringah was ranked as Sydney's No 1 squad.

Many believe that the success of the Rats 7s kick started a great 2014 Season. As we go to print, the October season is about to begin, with two tournaments in October, Mudgee and Central Coast 7s. With a lot of new faces, the squad is very keen with new head coach Greg Marr in charge.

At this point, I would like to thank the sponsors who have funded the Rats 7s programme. Hypro, Scotwork, Peter Holmes and Lex Tall.

The Rats 7s Squad 2014;

Independent Auditor's Report to the members of Warringah Rugby Club Limited

We have audited the accompanying financial report of Warringah Rugby Club Limited ("the Club") which comprises the trading account, profit and statement of financial position as at 30 September 2014 for the year ended on that date, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies.

Committee's Responsibility for the Financial Report

The committee members of the Club are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Associations Incorporation Act (NSW) and for such internal control as the committee determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control, relevant to the Club's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view, in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Club's internal control.

An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

1. The Club has determined that it is impracticable to establish control over the collection of the cash receipts prior to entry into its financial records. Accordingly, as the evidence available to us regarding revenue was limited, our audit procedures with respect to income had to be restricted to the amounts recorded in the financial records. We therefore are unable to express an opinion whether income that the Club recorded is complete.
2. Whilst we are satisfied with the material accuracy of amounts recorded in the statement of financial position at 30 September 2014, the impact of opening balances (unaudited) on the current period financial position prevents us from forming an opinion on the financial report taken as a whole.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matters described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial report of Warringah Rugby Club Limited is in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards, including:

- (a) giving a true and fair view of the Club's financial position as at 30 September 2014 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
- (b) complying with Australian Accounting Standards.
